

opening prayer (2 min)

Welcome God's presence and prepare hearts for growth with a brief, focused prayer.

highlights (15 min)

- Facilitated by Leader or Co-Leader.
- Share recent answered prayers, blessings, or growth.
- Begin with "How was your week? Any highs or lows?"
- Close with a short prayer of gratitude.

time to consider (30 min)

Engage with the week's Sunday sermon using discussion questions.

- 1. What does Paul's final instruction to Titus (v.14) reveal about the role of good works in the life of a believer?
- 2. Why do you think Paul names specific people (Tychicus, Artemas, Zenas, Apollos) in his closing remarks What does this show us about teamwork in ministry and the mission of the church?

Interpretation / Reflection Questions

- 3. How does the idea of "missional living" challenge or affirm your current view of what it means to be a follower of Jesus?
- 4. When you look at your life story, what does it currently proclaim to others about Jesus—and what do you want it to proclaim going forward?

Application Question

5. What is one specific way you can devote yourself to "good works" this week—especially in helping meet an urgent need in someone's life or in our church or city?

closing prayer (5 min)

- Pray for applying what was learned that night.
- Share and pray over personal requests, prioritizing personal prayer over third-person requests.
- If the group is mixed gender, break into men's and women's groups for accountability and openness.
- Close by asking God for courage and wisdom to live missionally.
