

Prayer

Every Wednesday with fasting included on the first Wednesday of every month

NOVEMBER 30

Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

Isaiah 43:18-19

I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you with my eye upon you. Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you.

Psalms 32:8-9

- Coming out of the season of Awaken Tijuana it is possible to be weary or have a tendency to be stagnant resting on what we believe we have accomplished. Number one, it is what the Lord accomplished not us. However, I believe the passage above from Isaiah is a demonstration of what the Lord did for his people coming through the desert. Although he delivered them from the hands and captivity of the Egyptians and through the Red Sea, now he is making a road for them through the desert and creating water supplies for all his people and creatures to be grateful and praise his name. What does God have for us moving into this new season? I'm not 100% sure yet, but like Psalm 32:8-9, I believe this was not David's words, but the Lord replying to David's worship with guidance and a lesson on the need for constant reliance. We need to continue to seek the Lord and look for his guidance on what is next for us at Awaken Las Vegas.*

No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

1 Corinthians 10:13

- We were tested to the limit in Tijuana. I doubted many times on Friday and Saturday if the event could be pulled off due to the challenges we were facing. That prompted me to pray and be reminded of the above scripture. The Lord will challenge us and we will be tempted by our flesh, but the Lord will always provide the way out. That way out might not be easy to find or easy to accomplish and may even be unconventional, but continue to lean into the Lord through prayer and fasting and low and behold there it is.*

